A Gift From the Heart

I know you asked for China, but my wisdom came with age.
If I gave you what you asked, I fear China only comes out once a year

I'd love to give you Lenox.

I got goblets for my wedding, but when they cost $50 a stem no one would ever touch them.

I thought about silver, but then I changed my mind.

One place setting wasn't enough, On the budget, two was tough.

So my gift to you and yours is something you'll use everyday.

With the lifetime guarantee, I know you'll soon see...

A box full of Tupperware is my wedding gift to you.

You'll love it from the start, For it's a gift from my heart!!!
