

Create an Online Presence for your Tupperware Business

By Wendy Leal

Below is a list of websites and directories where you can post your Tupperware business information for free. To gain the highest exposure for your business be sure that you have the Gold Tupperware website package for $15.95 a month. This package is great because Tupperware will list you in the sponsored results in your local area on Google. When someone searches for "Tupperware" in your local area this ad will show at the top of the search results giving you the opportunity to get more leads locally.
