

Freezer Mates[®] Containers

Key Features and Benefits

- Freezer Mates[®] containers feature a material that can withstand temperatures as low as -4° F/-20° C and are virtually unbreakable when dropped on a hard floor or surface.
- With the clarity of the polished windows on the base and seal, it's easy to recognize food in all types of freezers.
- Tabs on the corner allow for easy removal of seals.
- An etched line with a snowflake on the base shows the maximum fill line so you can leave headspace to allow for expansion in the freezer.
- With the modular dimensions and flat top, the containers stack securely and utilize every inch of freezer space.
- When not in use, the containers nest to save space in your kitchen.
- Rounded corners and recessed base allows air to circulate evenly around and under the container faster and more efficiently when freezing or thawing.
- Flexible enough to gently twist the container to "pop" out frozen foods.
- Available in a variety of sizes so you can personalize for your freezer needs.

How to Position

Go green by making a one-time, lifetime purchase of Freezer Mates[®] containers—an exciting organizational freezer system that is modular, space saving, flexible, and has the Tupperware[®] product guarantee of quality. It's the perfect solution for your freezer for see-through, low temperature, and virtually unbreakable containers. It also eliminates the need for disposable alternatives that can harm our planet.

How to Demonstrate

- "Instantly create more freezer space with Freezer Mates[®] containers. They allow you to get the food you need without having to rearrange the entire freezer."
- "The rounded corners and recessed bottoms of the containers allow air to circulate evenly around and under the containers for faster, more efficient freezing and thawing of foods."
- "Each container has a flat seal that enables the containers to stack on one another."

- “Containers have an ideal wall thickness, which means the food will freeze and defrost quickly.”
- “Gently twist the container to “pop” out frozen foods.”
- “The sheer containers have polished windows that allow you to easily identify the contents.”
- “Reduce the necessity of even the smallest food waste by using the mini containers.”
- “Freeze small amounts of chopped green peppers or onions, saving recipe preparation time later.”
- “Supermarkets package meats for “showing” not storing. For best results, repack meats in Freezer Mates® containers, the lifetime storage purchase.”
- “With the Large container, create a permanent chicken, fish, or hamburger patty box by buying on sale or in bulk. Flash-freeze pieces, remove what you need and keep refilling each time you find meat on sale!”
- “Fill with anything you want to freeze that does not contain liquids, then line up the containers like dominoes in the freezer door rack.”
- “If you like things organized, Freezer Mates® containers are for you. They’ll keep you frozen food stacked neatly and compactly.”
- Some suggestions for what the containers can hold, more information is located on Tupperware.com and Tupperware.ca along with information on blanching, flash freezing and the typical freezer life of various foods:
 - Small 1: 8-10 oz grated cheese or 1 lb of ground beef
 - Small 2: 1 – 1 ½ lbs. cubed meat, 2-3 butterfly pork chops or 1 lb. frozen vegetables
 - Medium 1: 1 lb. ground beef, 1½ lb. boneless chicken breast, 1 lb. fish fillet or 6 muffins
 - Medium 2: 3 ½ lbs. chicken thighs or 2 lbs. French fries
 - Large 2: 4-5 lbs. chicken wings
- Usage Suggestions
 - Vegetables in season: freeze vegetables from your own vegetable garden or buy when quality and price are at their best and freeze for use during the year.
 - Prep ahead of time: chop onions, peppers, or garlic to save preparation time when cooking.
 - Fruits through the year: freeze fresh fruits according to recommended methods, for example with sugar, a syrup, or as ready to cook. For soft berries, it’s best to freeze as a puree then serve as a topping with winter fruits.
 - Sauces, soups, stews, chowders, and chili—save time by cooking large quantities and freezing in suitable portions.
 - Meat: save money and buy meat in bulk or family-size packs, and repackage into dinner-size portions for your family. Or try spreading out the pieces, which freezes the meat faster, making it easy to remove and thaw just the amount you need.
 - Baked Goods: make treats such as scones, brownies, cookies, bars, and sweet breads ahead of time. When ready to use, store and/or carry them in the same container.
 - Leftovers: freeze leftovers for use later.

How to Cross Sell

- Demonstrate how to go from the bulk pack you buy at the grocery store, to efficient, freezer safe storage of uncooked foods.
- Cross sell with any of the Organize & Relax products like the Modular Mates® Containers, FridgeSmart® Containers, Access Mates® Large Container, Large and Small Spice Shakers, Super Cereal Storer, Spaghetti Dispenser, and One Touch® Reminder Canister Set to organize your pantry/cabinets, countertop, refrigerator, and freezer.
